Our wide aero bodykit fits the 2007 - 2008 C Class ( W 204 ) model. Inspired by the German Touring Masters racing cars ( DTM ), it has been designed to enhance both esthetics and performances. Larger openings in the bumper and hood vents help to get a better engine cooling while the « widebody » fender flares allow to mount larger wheels. The front bumper set features LED indicators and directional foglights bringing your car to a new high-tech level, while the rear carbon fiber diffuser combined with the double twin-tip exhaust achieve the overall aggressive look of the vehicle.
